

COMDTNOTE 5700
JAN 31 2002

COMMANDANT NOTICE 5700

CANCELLED: DEC 31 2002

Subj: 2002 CALENDAR OF DIVERSITY ENHANCING EVENTS AND OBSERVANCES

Ref: Coast Guard Equal Opportunity Program Manual, COMDTINST M5350.4, Chapter 3

1. PURPOSE. This Notice publishes the 2002 Calendar of Coast Guard diversity enhancing events and observances.
2. ACTION. Area and district commanders, commanders of maintenance and logistics commands, commanding officers of headquarters units, assistant commandants for directorates, Chief Counsel and special staff offices at Headquarters shall make this Notice available to all personnel.
3. DIRECTIVES AFFECTED. None
4. BACKGROUND. The Coast Guard recognizes that the United States is a diverse mix of groups who brought their own cultures, differences, and values to build this nation. This mix of differences makes our nation strong. In recognition of the many achievements of these diverse groups, Coast Guard sets aside time each year to celebrate their contributions, heighten awareness, and become more knowledgeable about managing a diverse workforce.

5. PROGRAM PLANNING. The Coast Guard encourages program planning for these national and local observances and training activities consistent with Command focus and the Coast Guard Strategic Plan. The exact nature of each observance is determined by the command and must be consistent with the availability of local resources. The goals of such observances are to:
 - a. Promote learning activities and programs addressing diversity and the value of a diverse workforce.
 - b. Provide the Coast Guard workforce with a greater understanding of the contributions that each ethnic group and gender have made to our nation, DOT, and the Coast Guard.
 - c. Address the substance reflected in the theme of the national observance, or the Presidential Proclamation, or Coast Guard policy related to the specific group.
6. RECOMMENDED ACTIVITIES. Recommended activities include but are not limited to:
 - a. Training activities to enhance the Coast Guard's awareness of the value of diversity.
 - b. Guest speakers or panels who are experts in the field of the culture, issues, or contributions of the group, or are knowledgeable of theme topics or the substance of the Presidential Proclamation on the national observance.
 - c. Articles about the observance and the recognized group's accomplishments in command publications.
 - d. Exhibits, displays of literature, pictorial histories, etc., which are representative of the group's culture, accomplishments, etc.
 - e. Video, slides, or other media that are representative of the group's achievements.
7. CALENDAR. The attached calendar was compiled using other federal agencies' listings, web-site research and contact with the event and/or observance sponsoring organizations. The sponsoring organization's web site is provided so that additional information may be locally gathered on the event and/or about the organization. The calendar is intended for your information and planning use. It does not constitute nor imply recommendation or endorsement by this Directorate or by the United States Coast Guard of any of the organizations listed thereon. For further guidance on Diversity and Cultural Awareness, please consult the reference (a), Section 3.A located at cgweb.uscg.mil; click on the "Services" tab then double click the "Civil Rights" link. The manual may be found under the "Field Support" heading on the menu.
